ALLEVIATE'S PROVISO STAKES.

The Kentucky confederacy at Harlem, and "Kid" Rogers, the St. Louis plunging novelty, made the ring smart yesterday over the victory of Alleviate in the Proviso Stake. The filly is home bred. W. F. Schulte, her owner, raised her on his own farm. He owned both her sire Argyle and dam Per-adventure. Eleven went to the post for the stake. Alleviate won her maiden race September 23, and in it beat Nannie Davis. That was the only hint as to her quality.

Alleviate's opening odds 8 to 1 rose to 30 to 1. Then the money poured in. It came in a thin but steady stream. From 30 to 1 Alleviate was backed down to 10 to 1. Connolly got the filly off fairly well, and taking the short route waited for the natural spread of the field on the stretch bend. It came, the filly got through and won like the equine lady that she is, in 1:01½. Breeding this kind instills pride into the horseman's heart. Presbyterian, the betting choice, ran nearly his race. Forbush didn't.

The pace set by Billy Mason stood the field on its head. It was more than usually keen; a quarter in 23½ seconds and three furlongs in 35 seconds.

Daily Racing Form, a comely youngster by Burlington, "the gentleman in black," and that fast and nervous mare, Ella Blackburn, scored on his first attempt. Such was natural. The colt is in the popular Coulter stable and was the natural favorite. All sorts and conditions of men bet on him. That was natural too. They had known his father and his mother well and had no reason to suspect his habitation. Master Gray was up and performed a hard task well. The colt didn't like racing with a bunch. He ran to the outside of the track in the straight and then bore in. But he did not interfere with any of his competitors, and when Master Gray had straightened him out, Daily Racing Form came on and won as he should have won.

The public gleaned pain and grief out of the defeat of David Tenny by Harry McCouch in the third race, but found an antidote in the victory of that lovely filly, Donna Rita, whose consistency is a credit to her owner.

More balm came when W. C. T. beat his field. It relieved the tired feeling that had been formed in the wake of the victories of Idle Hour and Harry McCouch.

The Association is trying hard to gather the western two-year-old stars for a race at a mile. The idea is a $250 entrance fee with a liberal addition. Malvolio and Traverser to give other entrants weight.

HAWTHORNE FOR SALE.

Hawthorne, who was an extra good race horse in the colors of both Pat Dunne and Barney Schreiber, is a grand individual and well bred on stout old-fashioned lines. He beat Morrello and a lot of good horses in his day, and is for sale. Hawthorne is a big noble looking chestnut horse, seven years old, by Major Richards—Lady Longfellow.

For a breeder in a moderate way he is a prize. Hawthorne is for sale. Address Barney Schreiber, DAILY RACING FORM, Chicago, Ill.

HAMBURG AND HIS WINNINGS.

There's no doubt about the two-year-old supremacy of 1897. Hamburg's the best. He's an extra good colt, though less than Hanover, Tremont and His Highness. He has beaten the best and is therefore better than the rest. What are the rest? Less than a really good lot! They beat each other too much for keen individual supremacy.

W. H. Timmons, a good judge, is in Chicago. He has seen all Hamburg's eastern races and inclines to the idea that, though a speed marvel, the colt may be less than good at a distance. The records of action dovetail with Mr. Timmons' idea. They usually do. Hamburg has been beaten in three races. Two of the three were at

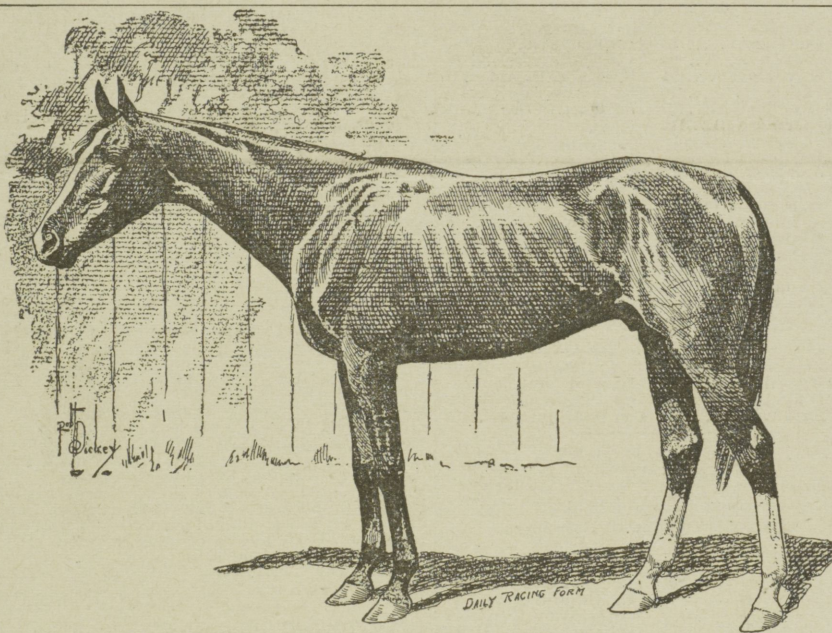

THE CHAMPION OF 1897.

"Blitzen" Bradley's a butcher. After Traverser had been freighted from Detroit to Chicago and won the Graduate Stakes, he was shipped away for action and is to come back for farther Chicago use within a few days. Traverser seems to be the Western colt of the year.

Jake Marklein had better shoot at Traverser before he goes after Hamburg with his Malvolio. Hamburg seems to be able to beat both Malvolio and Traverser. The latter seems to have the ability to beat Mr. Fay's good colt.

Here is the record of all three colts this year:

Horse	Races	Won	1	3	Up.
Hamburg	18	12	3	1	0
Traverser	8	6	1	0	1
Malvolio	11	9	0	0	2

seven furlongs. He comes from a flashy family and may be flashy himself. But Hamburg is a superb individual, a marvel of speed and the colt of 1897. So far this season Hamburg has won $42,385 as shown by the table below:

A special race at three-quarters of a mile between the trio would attract national attention. The weights based on performance would be adjusted about this way; Hamburg, 125; Traverser, 110; Malvolio, 105. As form hints

Hamburg would win and Malvolio would run third. Mr. William Timmons, who uncovered Diggs, is in Chicago. He has seen all Hamburg's Eastern races and thinks that the Hanover colt, while a speed marvel, up to three-quarters, cannot go a distance. The figures of racing support Mr. Timmons' idea. Hamburg has been beaten three times. Two of his races were at seven furlongs. Mr. Timmons is keen and intelligent and his ideas are usually in the line of form. The performance of Hamburg's relatives support the Timmons idea. But just the same, the colt is the best of the two-year-olds of 1897.

Off first break. Start good. Won easily; second under pressure. Abingdon tiptoed his field. Thomas Cat was out to the last ounce and stopping. Frank Jaubert was gaining at the finish. He will win at the meeting.

The second race was a green hunters' race on the flat, without form association.

Time, 2:44, 494, 1:02.
Winner—B. c, by Burlington—Ella Blackburn.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next three were driving to the limit. Daily Racing Form was pounds the best. He was green and did not know what to do. He darted to the outside at the head of the stretch and at the eighth pole seemed hopelessly beaten. When clear of his field, in the center of the track, he came away cleverly and won like a gentleman. Judicious had his usual turn of speed and tired on the end. Bob Garnet tired when the pinch came. Star and Crescent was cut off on the far turn.
Scratched—Radaire, 99; Sir Hobart, 99; Glen Terra, 110; Robert Hiner, 99.

Winner—Ch. c, 3, by Spendthrift—Flutter.
Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won well in hand; second, third and fourth driving hard. Idle Hour was lucky. He got away well on his stride, and although interfered with some on the first turn, it was not enough to cause any damage. Hessville ran the best race. With clear sailing, he certainly would have won. It was too far for Inspector Hunt. Watch him at three-quarters on a soft track. Miss Al Farrow needed a race. She was never urged to the limit today. Gallante will hardly do.

Time, 2:56, 564, 1:02, 1:16, 1:41, 1:47.
Winner—B. g. 4, by Ferg Kyle—Bosena.
Off first break. Start good. Won in a gallop; second driving hard and out to the last ounce. Harry McCouch was at his best and toyed with his field. He is a free running animal and likes best to be in front. Connolly was quite busy the entire route on David Tenny. The colt seemed to be dull. Throw the race out. It was below the notch. Mordecai was cut off several times and was generally poorly handled. He needs a strong boy to hold his head up. Morea swerved when asked the question. He is a bad colt.

Winner—B. f, by Argyle—Per-adventure.
Post 15 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving and out to the last ounce; third and fourth driving hard, too. Alleviate ran a cracking good race. She was off in the rear division, but hugged the rails all the way. Judging from her win she has got a chance with any of the fillies at the track. Billy Mason did well. He was lucky to get away as well as he did. Presbyterian looked to be a sure winner at the three furlong pole. He tired though on the end. Loving Cup, off poorly, made up a lot of ground. Forbush ran a bad race. He evidently dislikes weight. Official was badly cut off shortly after the start. Fair Deceiver is faint-hearted. Judge Wardell is a bad actor at the post. He caused the delay.

Winner—B. f, 3, by St. Blaise—Active.

Post 30 seconds. Start perfect. Won eased up. The others were hard driven. Donna Rita was in a soft spot. She set a slow pace and it suited her as well as those in the rear. The price about Donna Rita was too long. Bing Binger carried Fonclif wide on the turns. Fonclif can not go the route. He was wabbling all over at the finish. Evanatus sulked the first part of it, but made up considerable ground the last three furlongs.

Winner—Br. g. 4, by Montrose—Georgie H.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won with a bit to spare. The next three were doing their best Sloan rated W C T nicely in front. He is a free running horse and if allowed to do so will race himself to pieces. Glenmoyme could never get to the front. He was under a drive the last quarter. Vitrola ran an honest race. Donation had a rough journey. So had Loyaletta. Trilby was pinched out of it on the first turn. Don Fulano was under a strong pull down the back stretch. The track was too hard to suit his dicky legs.
Scratched—Florenna, 110.
